HARZ MOUNTAINS FROM WERNIGERODE TO QUEDLINBURG

Brief information on the tour

One of the most beautiful and popular hiking regions – the Harz Mountains – is located right in the middle of Germany. Famous medieval towns with half-timbered houses as e.g. Quedlinburg, Wernigerode and Goslar make a fascinating cultural contrast to the mystic forests in the "green heart of Germany" as the Harz Mountains are called as well.

One of the most famous hiking trails of the Harz region is the Harz Witches Trail that winds 100 kilometres on old trade trails through the upper Harz region. Get to know the Eastern part of the Harz Witches Trail while undertaking this versatile and promising hiking tour from Wernigerode to Quedlinburg.

Right at the beginning of your walking holidays, the colourful town of Wernigerode awaits you. Furthermore, you will be excited taking a ride with the venerable Harz narrow-gauge railway up to the Brocken Mountain. On all stages of your hike in the Harz National Park, you get to enjoy the view on blooming mountain meadows and natural forests. Your travel destination is the UNESCO World Heritage City of Quedlinburg.

Itinerary and services of the tour

Detailed tour description

Day 1: Individual journey to Wernigerode

After arrival, you can stroll around the contorted alleys of Wernigerode. Small half-timbered houses, one of Germany's most beautiful town halls and a castle above the city wait to be explored by you. Via narrow-gauge railway, you reach castle hill very comfortably (costs not included). From here, you can enjoy the magnificent view over town.

Day 2: Brocken Mountain – Schierke (approx. 10 km, walking time: approx. 3 hrs)

Today's initial highlight is the ride with the Harz narrow-gauge railway with its nostalgic charm. If the weather is good, you can enjoy a fantastic view over the countryside from the highest mountain of Northern Germany. Alighting the Brocken on Harz Witches Trail slowly, you pass the granite rock formation Trudenstein and experience beautiful sight.

Day 3: Schierke – Rübeland (approx. 21 km, walking time: approx. 6 hrs)

Today's hiking stage through the Harz Mountains takes you downhill to Königshütter Waterfall. Now, you encounter the Bode creek and new scenery appears – limestone mining above ground, which is still operated today. You can enjoy a magnificent view of today's stage designation Rübeland from viewpoint Hoher Kleef. Later on you should not miss out on Rübeland's worth seeing limestone caves.

Day 4: Rübeland – Altenbrak (approx. 15 km, walking time: approx. 4,5 hrs)

In today's section of the Harz Witches Trail you wander along idyllic forest – and meadow paths through the area of "old mining" with its numerous geological features. You walk along the Bode river following small, wide and high paths. Passing the dam in Wendefurth, you will reach the first foothills of the beautiful Bodetal.

Day 5: Altenbrak – Thale (approx. 14 km, walking time: approx. 4 hrs) and train ride from Thale to Quedlinburg

On your last day of your hiking journey through the Harz Mountains, you wander through the "Grand Canyon of Germany" – the Bodetal – with its towering granite rocks. While wandering on narrow paths, you will be delighted by unique rock ravines. Via devil's bridge, you reach Thale where you will spend the night. It is especially known for its the legendary fairy ring and striking granite rock of Rosstrappe – both to be reached easily via cable car (costs not included). Within minutes you reach Quedlinburg via train.

Day 6: Stay in Quedlinburg

Stroll through the alleys and be delighted by numerous artistic and rustic half-timbered houses. Especially worth seeing is the Romanesque monastery church St. Servatius on castle hill – one of the most meaningful buildings of the Romantic period – and the town's historic district with its pretty town hall. You will spend the night in this UNESCO World Heritage City.

Day 7: Individual departure

After a delicious breakfast and with lots of wonderful memories about Wernigerode, Quedlinburg and your hiking tours through the Harz Mountains, you will start your journey back home.
