WALKING TOUR AROUND ZUGSPITZE

1. Day: Individual arrival in Garmisch-Partenkirchen This cute town is famous for its winter sport, which plays an absolute huge role here. And even if it is summer, take some time to stroll through the alleys and small roads. Get used to the Bavarian style of living and maybe get your first 'Brotzeit' here.

2. Day: Garmisch-Partenkirchen – Mittenwald/Klais (approx. 16 km/5 hrs) Finally your journey around the mountain Zugspitze started. One of the highlights of the tour is the 'Partnachklamm' (extra costs). Where else can you walk between sheer rock walls with a river beneath you? Later you walk along peaceful meadows towards Klais or Mittenwald. If you want, you can shorten one part of your journey by taking the tram (extra costs).

3. Day: Mittenwald/Klais – Leutasch (approx. 14 km/4 hrs) Today your hike leads you along the Leutscher Ache creek. It was cut out of the rock and the path is on wooden planks, which is a bit adventurous, but also really safe. On your way to Leutasch valley the great big massif of Wetterstein throws its shadow over lovely meadows and your paths.

4. Day: Leisure time or lake tour (approx. 9 km/3 hrs) You can spend the day relaxing or you go for a short hike around lake Seefeld. You could also go on an excursion to one of the Seefelder summits.

5. Day: Leutasch – Ehrwald (approx. 17 km/5 hrs) You have to take the bus (extra costs) to the nature paradise Gaistal valley, where today's journey starts. Keep walking on the Ganhofer path towards the Ehrwalder Alm. Later you can take the cable car down into the valley and walk further on to the Ehrwalder Alm, where you will spend your night.

6. Day: Ehrwald – Garmisch-Partenkirchen (approx. 12 km/4.5 hrs) Now you walk towards the mountain Zugspitze. You get to the Eibsee view, which is a famous panoramic view. After making this memory unforgettable, take the train back to Garmisch-Partenkirchen, where your walking tour started and now ends.
