CYCLING HOLIDAYS CUXHAVEN – HAMBURG

From Cuxhaven you ride along the Elbe River until you reach Hamburg with its imposing harbour and fish market.

Day 1: Individual arrival to Cuxhaven

After your arrival you can enjoy the different attractions of the seaside health resort Cuxhaven. Find out whose ship "Alte Liebe" lies sunken here and what's meant by the expressions "Kugelbake" and "Semaphor".

Day 2: Stay in Cuxhaven

Today, you can choose between different opportunities to spend your day. You can either stay in Cuxhaven or visit the Island Neuwerk with its lighthouse. Another alternative activity is a mudflat hiking tour starting from the National Park Center.

Day 3: Cuxhaven – Balje (approx. 40 km)

Today, you keep following the Elbe dykes past beautiful nature reserves. Breathe in the fresh North Sea breeze and enjoy the view of small thatched houses along the way. You cross Otterndorf and Neuhaus to reach Balje.

Cuxhaven

Day 4: Balje – Stade (approx. 70 km)

Crossing the Kehdinger Land, with a little luck, you may be able to watch rare bird species. Today's goal is Stade and awaits you with a beautifully restored old town.

Day 5: Stay in Stade

Enjoy a morning stroll through the more than 1000-year-old city Stade and discover the beautiful old half-timbered houses. You can also do a roadtrip on the „Obstroute“ – which is known as the largest contiguous fruit-growing region in Germany.

Day 6: Stade – Hamburg (approx. 50 km)

The Elbe cycle path guides you through the Altes Land, known to be the largest contiguous fruit-growing region in Germany.

Passing by thousands of apple trees and picturesque fruit farms, your way leads you through Steinkirchen and Jork. At the end of the day, you will reach Hamburg.

Hamburg

Day 7: Stay in Hamburg

The famous hanseatic city offers a wealth of cultural attractions to light up your evening. Get in the mood with a boat trip from the harbour, a visit to the old warehouse district or a climb up Hamburg's symbolic church – the "Michel".
