DRESDEN AND SURROUNDINGS IN 4 OR 7 DAYS

1. Day: Individual arrival to Dresden

Do not miss out to get to know the baroque city of Dresden by bicycle! Within a short period of time, you are able to visit the sights of the old town or the cozy bars of the Neustadt quarter from your centrally located hotel.

2. Day: Bicycle tour to Meissen (approx. 30 km)

Passing the beautiful Gohliser windmill on the left side of the river Elbe, you are cycling to Meissen today. Meissen is inseparably connected to the subject of porcelain; a visit of the famous factory therefore is an absolute necessity. Later you are taking the train back to Dresden.

3. Day: Bicycle tour to Saxon Switzerland (approx. 45 km)

We recommend a train ride with the city train to Bad Schandau in the morning. From here you cycle 45 impressive kilometers back to Dresden along the river Elbe. On your way you will see bizarre rock formations, the Königstein Fortress, the famous Bastei Bridge and the Pillnitz Castle, which used to be the former summer residence of August the Strong.

4. Day: Dresden (only for 7 days tour)

Today everything revolves around Dresden. Leave your bike behind and take the ship, the bus and the Dresden Funicular Railway to go on a tour of discovery. In the afternoon sufficient time remains for activities such as going for a stroll, shopping, taking a break or cycling.

5. Day: Bicycle tour to Moritzburg Castle (approx. 50 km, only for 7 days tour)

In the morning you will cycle to Radebeul, which became well known because of Karl May, one of Germany's most widely read authors. A ride on the traditional narrow-gauge railway „Lössnitz Dachshund“ will bring you to Moritzburg, where you can visit the former hunting chateau of the Saxonian King August the Strong. After touring through the pond landscape you return to Radebeul.

From there you can either catch the city train or cycle your way back to the hotel.
