CYCLING HOLIDAYS HAMBURG – BERLIN

Day 1: Individual arrival in Hamburg
The Hanseatic city offers a wide range of cultural attractions. Explore the city either on a boat trip through the harbour or take a walk along the jetties.

Day 2: Hamburg – Lauenburg (approx. 55 km On the first stage of your tour you will cycle on dykes along the Elbe to Lauenburg. The old shipping town is studded with half-timbered houses from the 16th and the 17th century.

Day 3: Lauenburg – Hitzacker (approx. 55 km) Today's cycle tour through sleepy villages and the Elbe Floodplain UNESCO Biosphere Reserve will lead you to Hitzacker. The town's historic centre with numerous half-timbered houses is picturesque situated on an island and invites you for a stroll.

Day 4: Hitzacker – Wittenberge (approx. 78 km) On your fourth day you will continue to ride through the peaceful Elbe floodplains. Enjoy the tranquillity and wildlife along the way. You will also pass the former inner German borderland. Soon after that, Wittenberge will appear on the horizon, well known for its many towers.

Day 5: Wittenberge – Havelberg (approx. 38 km) After leaving Wittenberge you will cycle on dykes along the banks of the Elbe to Havelberg. The town is situated at the river Havel. Visit the city's impressive cathedral in the Romanesque and Gothic style made of red-brick.

Day 6: Havelberg – Rathenow (approx. 53 km) From today on the tour continues along the Havel River Cycle Path passing green fields and small villages. You will finish the stage in the 'town of optics" Rathenow. We recommend a visit at the Optics Museum and the Optic Park.

Day 7: Rathenow – Brandenburg (approx. 65 km) Today the cycle path will lead you through the lake region west of the city Brandenburg. The city itself is scattered over several islands and peninsulas worth exploring.

Day 8: Brandenburg – Potsdam (approx. 60 km) The day starts with cycling on dykes through vast landscape. Allow some time to visit the town Werder situated on an island and the Palace Caputh with its garden. In the afternoon the idyllic waterfront of the Lake Templin will guide you to Potsdam.

Sanssouci Castle in Potsdam

Day 9: Potsdam – Central Berlin (approx. 50 km) On the last stage of your cycle tour, you will cross the Glienicke Bridge first and find yourself in the German capital – Berlin. Continuing the tour you will take the ferry across the Wannsee Lake (costs not included) and then ride along the Spree Cycle Path right into Berlin's city centre.
