CYCLING HOLIDAYS BAMBERG – ASCHAFFENBURG

Day 1: Individual arrival in Bamberg Once you have arrived, take the time to discover the old city, with its breweries and churches.

Day 2: Bamberg – Haßfurt (approx. 37 km) Today you'll be following the Regnitz until you reach the Main River, which will then guide you to the Maria Limbach pilgrims' church. Soon you will come upon the first vineyards. Your day's journey will end in Haßfurt with the historic center.

Day 3: Haßfurt – Volkach (approx. 56 km) A quick side-trip to the beautiful village "Theres" will give you new energy for the rest of the trip. In the afternoon you will ride to Volkach, known for its excellent wines. Along the way you will pass the city of Fahr, which is famous for its "Bocksbeutel", a wide, rounded wine bottle typical for the region.

Day 4: Volkach – Würzburg (approx. 65 km) After leaving Volkach you'll head away from the Main for a bit, following canals until you make it back to the Main. The leveled, well-paved bike route leads you'll be in Würzburg in no time, leaving plenty of opportunities to tour the city by foot in the afternoon.

Day 5: Würzburg – Lohr (approx. 60 km) On your way to Karlstadt and its famous downtown area, you'll pass through Veitshöchheim, getting a chance to see the bishop's summer residence, as well as the French rococo garden. The look of the countryside is changing: instead of the characteristic vines terraces shady forests now border the bicycle path.

Day 6: Lohr – Wertheim (approx. 46 km) After you pass Rothenfels, whose castle guards the narrow valley, you'll reach Marktheidenfeld and, finally, Wertheim. Take some time to see the beautiful half-timbered houses in the old city during your stay here.

Day 7: Wertheim – Aschaffenburg (approx. 36 – 77 km) For your 6th stage you have the choice: If you start in morning and pedal hard, you can reach Miltenberg and its many stately half-timbered houses already at noon (approx. 36 km). From Miltenberg you can shorten your today's stage and take the train to Aschaffenburg. (Direct train, 45 minutes, tickets are not included.) If you keep cycling you will follow on flat paths quickly to the little town Klingenberg (approx. 51 km). Also from here you could shorten the stage by taking the train. Before you reach the huge sandstone palace Johannsburg in Aschaffenburg, you cycle through the vineyards on flat paths.
