CYCLING HOLIDAYS BAYREUTH – ASCHAFFENBURG

Tours that are as individual as you!

Day 1: Individual arrival in Bayreuth
Once you have arrived, take the time to discover the city with its Margravian Opera House from the 18th century. The city is famous in the whole world for the Richard-Wagner-Festival.

Day 2: Bayreuth – Lichtenfels (approx. 61 km) Visit the Old Town of Kulmbach and Plassenburg Castle, enthroned majestically above the town. You reach the pretty town of Burgkunstadt inviting for a short stop. Lichtenfels, the today's final destination, is famous for its basket-weaving art far past the limits of Franconia.

Day 3: Lichtenfels – Bamberg (approx. 47 km) Along the route to Bamberg, you will see how the Main River is ponded in small lakes several times. Enjoy the Old Town of Bamberg, classified world heritage by the UNESCO.

Day 4: Bamberg – Haßfurt (approx. 37 km) Today you'll be following the River Regnitz until you reach again the Main River, which will then guide you to the "Maria Limbach" pilgrims' church. You'll come upon the first vineyards, which mark the border between the beer- and wine-producing areas of Franconia. The day's journey will end in Haßfurt, whose historic center is well worth your while to visit.

Day 5: Haßfurt – Volkach (approx. 56 km) A quick side-trip to the beautiful village of Theres will give you energy for the rest of the trip. Forests, fields, meadows, and the Main's floodplains offer a nicely varied landscape and guide you to Schweinfurt. In the afternoon you'll ride to Volkach, known for its excellent wines

Day 6: Volkach – Würzburg (approx. 65 km) After leaving Volkach you'll head away from the Main for a bit, following canals until you make it back to the Main in Schwarzach. The level, well-paved bike route means you'll be in Würzburg in no time, leaving plenty of opportunities to tour the city in the afternoon.

Day 7: Würzburg – Lohr (approx. 60 km) On your way to Karlstadt and its famous downtown area, you'll pass through Veitshöchheim, getting a chance to see the bishop's summer residence, as well as the French rococo garden. On flat paths you cycle to Gemünden, the town of the three rivers or further on to Lohr.

Day 8: Lohr – Wertheim (approx. 46 km) Thankfully, your trip will not take that long. After you pass Rothenfels, whose castle guards the narrow valley, you'll reach Marktheidenfeld and, finally, Wertheim. Take some time to see the beautiful half-timbered houses in the old city during your stay here.

Day 9: Wertheim – Aschaffenburg (approx. 77 km) On flat paths you reach Miltenberg and its many stately half-timbered houses. Before you reach the huge sandstone palace Johannisburg in Aschaffenburg, you cycle through the vineyards.
