CYCLING HOLIDAYS HANN. MÜNDEN – CUXHAVEN

1. Day: Individual arrival in Hann. Münden Get here early to have a chance to see the numerous half-timbered houses in the city, as well as the gorgeous city hall.

2. Day: Hann. Münden – Beverungen (approx. 55 km) After breakfast you start your first stage, which leads to the former Benedictine monastery at Bursfelde, and Oberweser with its open-air milling museum.

3. Day: Beverungen – Bodenwerder (approx. 59 km) Today your ride takes you along the border of Solling. You'll pass the Fürstenberg castle before you reach the cloister at Corvey. After that, continue on to the next highlight of the tour: the palace at Bevern.

4. Day: Bodenwerder – Rinteln (approx. 56 km) After leaving Bodenwerder, you'll be greeted by the picturesque Hämelschenburg, before being captivated by the Pied Piper of Hameln's song in – where else? – Hameln. Your today's destination will be Rinteln.

5. Day: Rinteln – Minden (approx. 41 km) Today you'll see Bad Oeynhausen, famous for its "Jordansprudel," the largest carbonated hot spring in the world. But things will get a bit tight (literally!) in the valley at Porta Westfalica, the gateway to Westphalia, before you reach Minden.

6. Day: Minden – Nienburg (approx. 63 km) Along the Weser Cycle Path the landscape changes as you enter the Northern German lowlands and soon you will reach the city Nienburg, where you can explore the old city. Just try to follow the bear tracks.

7. Day: Nienburg – Verden (approx. 55 km) Your ride takes you through little villages filled with red brick houses before you arrive in Verden, famous for its horses. Photo opportunities abound among the broad meadows, windmills, and occasional farmhouses.

8. Day: Verden – Bremen (approx. 56 km) Past the stork nursing station your today's biking tour leads to Bremen. Perhaps you heard the famous town musicians on your ride in, or maybe it was your imagination. Either way, don't forget to check out the statue of them in front of the city hall.

Tours that are as individual as you!

9. Day: Bremen – Brake (approx. 52 km) In Brake you should visit the museum of navigation in the telegraph tower. With the help of mock-ups of ships, nautical instruments and tools of sail makers you learn much about the history of navigation at the lower Weser.

10. Day: Brake – Bremerhaven (approx. 34 km) A fresh wind, the smell of salt in the air and much water and seagulls indicate that you are at the coast. In Bremerhaven the "Schaufenster Fischereihafen" is worth visiting. It is a centre for culture and communication with small shops, restaurants and cooking studio for saltwater fish.

11. Day: Bremerhaven – Cuxhaven (approx. 57 km) You cycle through the huge harbour with large docks and the flair of freeport. In Cuxhaven you may gain insight into this cultivated landscape at the information centre National park Wattenmeer (national preserve Wadden Sea).
