
ADVENT TOUR WEIMAR

Brief information on the tour

Weimar may be famous for many things, but did you know that the first Christmas tree was put up in a public place here in 1815, back in Goethe's time? From the parlour of a Weimar court bookseller, who put up the tree for the poor children of the city, the tradition of putting up a Christmas tree spread - still being practised today!

Experience the charm and contrasts of the unique cultural university city of Weimar during Christmas time. From the market square to the pedestrian zone to the theatre square, numerous Christmas markets line up and invite you to take a contemplative stroll. From November, an ice rink in the centre of the historic old town also attracts visitors to enjoy a festive get-together.

Get to know the charming city on a guided tour, indulge in culinary delights and follow in the footsteps of Goethe and Schiller on a visit to the imposing Weimar Castle and the Anna Amalia Library.
