Itinerary and services of the tour

Detailed tour description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Alba Welcome to the truffle capital! This afternoon take some time to stroll through the enchanting medieval town. Renowned for its splendid palaces and impressive towers, it has earned the nickname the city of a hundred towers. Overnight stay in Alba

Day 2: Alba – Treiso (approx. 16 km, walking time: approx. 5.5 hours, + 580 m, - 350 m) Today's walk follows the gentle course of the river Tanaro towards Barbaresco, the first of your journeys wine capitals. Here, life revolves around the celebrated red wine of the same name. You can sample it firsthand at the Enoteca Regionale, located within the beautifully restored church of San Donato. From there, your path leads you through the rolling hills of the Langhe, with sweeping vineyards guiding the way to Neive. Your day ends in Treiso, a peaceful haven in the heart of the Barbaresco wine region. Overnight stay in Treiso

Day 3: Treiso – Cravanzana (approx. 17 km, walking time: approx. 5.5 hours, + 410 m, - 500 m) Today's walk leads you along the Rocche di Sette Fratelli, a deep gorge carved into the landscape and framed by rolling vineyards, as you make your way to the small hamlet of Canta. From here, continue towards San Bovo, enjoying splendid panoramic views at every turn before reaching the picturesque village of Castino. Perched beautifully on a ridge between the Bormida and Belbo valleys, Castino was a prosperous medieval centre and once home to three monasteries. Today, it is best known for the region's first truffle grove open to the public. Your route then follows the crest of the hill, guiding you through chestnut and hazelnut groves on to Cravanzana. Overnight stay in Cravanzana

Day 4: Cravanzana – Bossolasco/Surroundings (approx. 15 km, walking time: approx. 4.5 hours, + 360 m, - 280 m) Today's route takes you through the heart of the hazelnut growing and across the gently rolling landscapes of the Upper Belbo Valley. Passing through Feisoglio, you will arrive in the charming village of Niella Belbo. The villages medieval character was famously shaped by Napoleons march, earning it the lasting nickname dei Francesi. Todays walk ends in San Benedetto with the same-named lake. From there, you will take a short transfer to Bossolasco, the well-known flower village, where you will spend the night. Overnight stay in Bossolasco and the surrounding area

Day 5: Bossolasco/Surroundings – Serralunga dAlba/Sinio (approx. 17 km, walking time: approx. 5 hours, + 250 m, - 640 m) The day begins with a gentle stroll through rolling hazelnut groves towards the village of Serravalle Langhe. Your path continues via Bric della Vacca, leading you through scenic vineyards to Roddino. After a pause at the Church of Saint Mary, you will discover the medieval farming village of Sinio. From here, the trail winds uphill through the vines to Serralunga dAlba, which is crowned by an impressive castle that is well worth a visit. Overnight stay in Serralunca dAlba or Sinio

Day 6: Serralunga dAlba/Sinio – Barolo (approx. 16 km, walking time: approx. 5.5 hours, + 560 m, - 610 m) Today's route will take you through hazelnut groves and across the wild forest to the picturesque village of Monforte d'Alba. The impressive campanile and Scarampi Palace can be seen from far away and will guide you into the heart of the village. Once there, take time to explore the historic centre, where medieval lanes invite you to wander at your leisure. The main square is surrounded by restaurants and wine bars, providing the perfect place to stop for a light lunch or a relaxing break. Continue on to the world-renowned wine village of Barolo and enjoy the enchanting views
